

Web Designing - Assignment 1

Q1. Web Technology - The technology used to make & run websites on Internet is called web technology.

- It's the collection of tools, languages, protocols that allow computers to communicate through world wide web.
- It allows users to browse websites, interact with online content & share information on Internet.

Q2 Front End Developers

- They focus on what users interact with on the website.
- They use languages like HTML, CSS, JavaScript.
- They work on libraries like jQuery.
- Has limited security
- user can see & interact with his code.

Back End Developers.

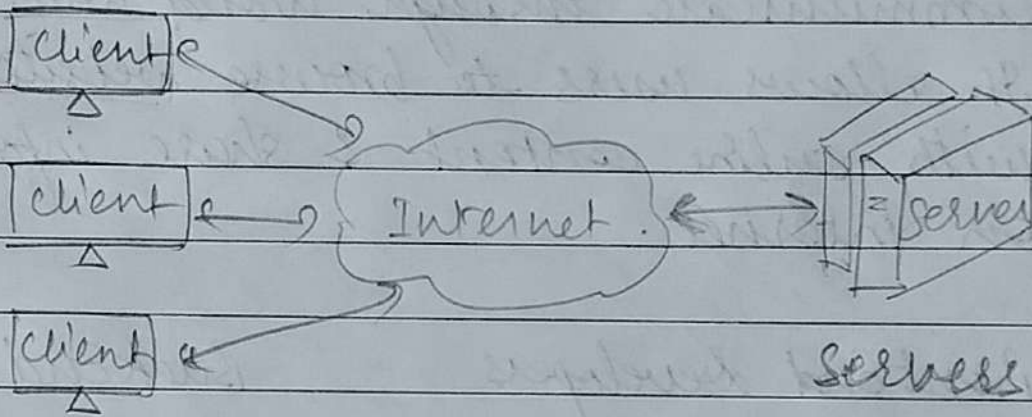

- They handle data & server-side functions of web apps.
- They use languages like PHP, Python, Java, C#.
- They work on database management systems like MySQL, MongoDB.
- Has advanced security.
- It's brain of website, & the code is not visible to user.

Q 3. Client-server architecture is a model where tasks are divided between 2 entities -

(i) Client $\rightarrow$ Requests

(ii) Server $\rightarrow$ Responds

The client requests services & the server processes & responds.

Clients

Servers